DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

KLG has been serving as a member of domestic and international network ranging from International Bar Association (IBA) to Union of Turkish Bar Association.

KLG is a member of IBA Academic and Professional Development Committee and Arab Regional Forum.

International Bar Association (IBA)

The International Bar Association, established in 1947, is the world's leading international organization of legal practitioners, bar associations, and law societies. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

The Union of Turkish Bar Associations is "an organization constituted from all the Bar Associations" in Turkey, and is a "non profit making legal entity in the form of a public professional organization". Since its establishment in 1969, the Union of Turkish Bar Associations has worked in the most effective way to bring about the conditions necessary for "the rule of law" and "fair trial".

Union of Turkish Bar Associations

Ankara Bar Association

ABA is one of the biggest and leading bar associations in Turkey. The third article of the Advocacy No. 460, which was put into effect in 1924, obliges people to form a community between them if the number of attorneys reaches 10 in one place and emphasizes that this formation will be called "Bar Association". In addition, the article states that in the places where there is a bar they can not be a lawyer without registering to Bar.
